Well positioned for changing regulatory landscape

Increased regulatory requirements

Regulatory capital

- Increased quantity and quality of capital.
- Significantly increased capital for market risk.
- Use of stressed VaR to avoid pro-cyclical capital.

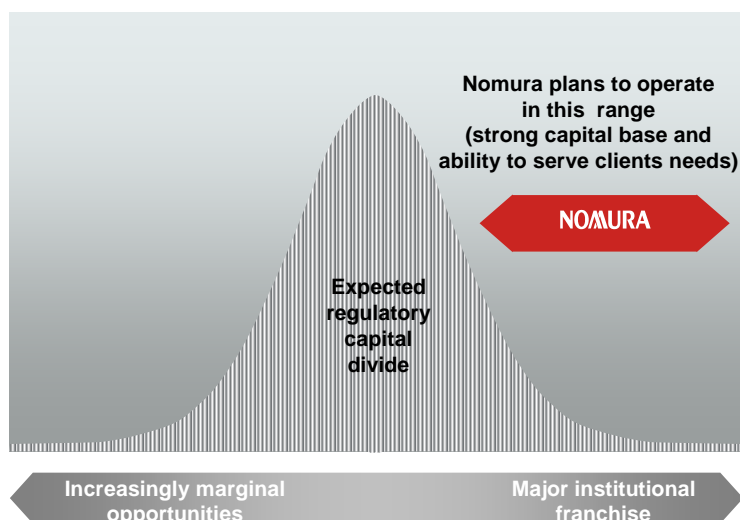

Leverage

- A gross leverage ratio backstop.

Liquidity

- Major intensification of liquidity regulation and supervision.

Expected regulatory capital divide

Actions to maintain capital ratios

- Industry trend is for smaller balance sheets, Nomura is going for growth.
- Efficient use of capital.
- Shift to less capital intensive businesses.
- Increase cost efficiencies.

Allocation of capital being raised

Capital allocation highlights

1. Retail expansion

- Invest in IT platform to improve customer service while controlling costs and headcount.

2. US build out

- Build out product and service platform in Global Markets and Investment Banking.

3. Asian and Islamic market growth

- Develop onshore opportunities and expand client network.
- Evaluate potential JVs in China and India.

4. EAFE wholesale growth

- Strategic business line investments (GM Asia and Europe)

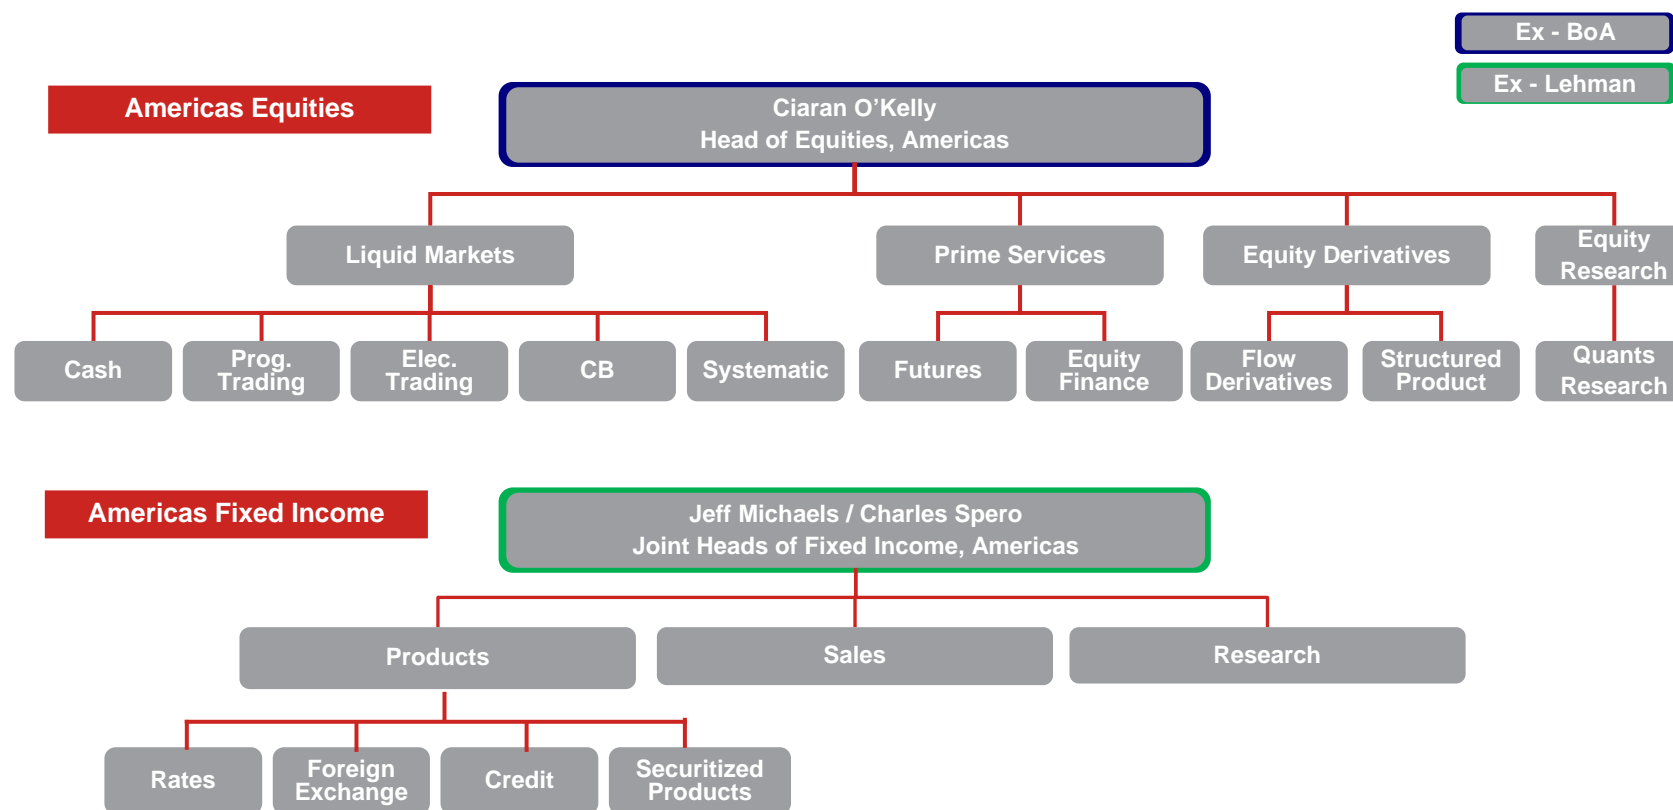

5. Buffer for the future

- Hold a buffer against possible market shocks.
- Prepare for increases in regulatory capital.

Global Markets organization in US

- Strong team with established track record.
