

Nomura Announces Changes to Board of Directors

Tokyo, March 7, 2017—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that Dame Clara Furse, an outside director of Nomura Holdings, will retire from the Board of Directors at the end of March 2017.

Since becoming an outside director of Nomura Holdings in 2010, Dame Clara has brought extensive experience in financial services to the board and contributed significantly to the firm's development. Her achievements and insights have been evaluated highly both within and outside of the firm.

"I have very much enjoyed working with my board colleagues and management at Nomura over the last seven years. Nomura has a progressive board and a strong corporate governance model, to which I believe I have made a contribution. However, the UK now faces a period of great change and I have been offered an opportunity to support its economic potential," said Dame Clara Furse.

"Nomura is itself working to deliver a significant transformation in its business and I regret that I will not be there to see it through. I am very proud to have worked with Nomura's people. I wish them all the best and expect many successes in their endeavours to build the future of the firm".

Dame Clara will step down from the board upon the conclusion of Nomura's current fiscal year ending March 2017. Nomura Holdings wishes her all the best for her future endeavors.

ends

Nomura

Nomura is an Asia-headquartered financial services group with an integrated global network spanning over 30 countries. By connecting markets East & West, Nomura services the needs of individuals, institutions, corporates and governments through its three business divisions: Retail, Asset Management, and Wholesale (Global Markets and Investment Banking). Founded in 1925, the firm is built on a tradition of disciplined entrepreneurship, serving clients with creative solutions and considered thought leadership. For further information about Nomura, visit www.nomura.com.