

Nomura Establishes Principal Investment Business Subsidiary

Tokyo, January 11, 2018—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced the establishment of Nomura Capital Partners Co., Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary that will oversee the firm's principal investment business.

Nomura launched its principal investment business this year with the establishment of a new Merchant Banking Division on January 1, 2018. Nomura Capital Partners will play a central role in the execution of this new business.

The needs of the firm's corporate clients have become increasingly diversified and sophisticated. In order to respond to these needs, the new company will primarily provide equity as a solution for business reorganizations and revitalizations, business succession as well as management buyouts.

Through its new subsidiary, Nomura will provide a broad range of solutions that meet the growing expectations of its clients. Nomura aims to become the financial services group that clients turn to and will continue to create businesses to tap into new sources of revenues.
