

Nomura Publishes Nomura Report 2025

Tokyo, August 29, 2025—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that it has published the Nomura Report 2025, an integrated version of the firm's Annual Report and Citizenship Report.

Nomura has been issuing this report since 2012 to provide clients, shareholders, employees and other stakeholders with a broad understanding of the firm's business activities including financial and non-financial information.

This year's report looks back on Nomura's 100-year history alongside the development of Japan's financial and capital markets. In addition to highlighting Nomura's Purpose established in 2024, it outlines the firm's management strategy to enhance long-term corporate value, and introduces its key business activities and value creation strategy.

Nomura has also published the Nomura Group Sustainability Report 2025 for the second consecutive year, outlining its sustainability strategy and direction and introducing some of the latest sustainability initiatives.

Nomura hopes that this integrated report will help readers gain a better understanding of the firm.
