Nomura to Rebuild Business Platform

Tokyo, April 4, 2019—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced plans to rebuild its business platform at its annual Investor Day.

Nomura is facing a major structural shift in its business, driven by changes in the regulatory environment, advances in digitalization, as well as evolving client needs due to Japan's declining birth rate and aging population.

The firm aims to completely transform its business platform to ensure that it can deliver consistent growth under any environment.

Please refer to Investor Day presentations for further details.
