LINE Securities to Launch New Service

Tokyo, June 27, 2019— Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that LINE Securities Corporation, the firm's joint venture with LINE Financial Corporation, plans to launch a new securities service on the LINE platform from autumn 2019.

The new service will allow clients to trade the stock of 100 carefully selected Japanese companies in single units of shares. Shares are expected to cost 150 yen each, and the minimum purchase will start from about 3,000 yen.

By making use of the simple, intuitive interface and experience of the LINE platform, LINE Securities aims to deliver a user-friendly experience for clients who are new to investing. The service will also offer real time trading until 9 p.m. on weekdays, allowing for additional convenience for a wide range of clients.

Further details will be provided when the new service commences.
