FY2023/24 4Q highlights

■ Net revenue: Y445.1bn (+11% QoQ); Income before income taxes: Y92.1bn (+17% QoQ); Net income¹: Y56.8bn (+12% QoQ); EPS²: Y18.02; ROE³: 6.8%

■ Three segment income before income taxes of Y77.1bn (+9% QoQ); Retail earnings momentum has continued since bottoming out in FY2022/23 1Q, while asset management business in Investment Management performed strongly

– Retail

- ✓ Stable recurring revenue at record high, while flow revenue grew on the back of improved investor sentiment driven by Japan stock market rally and start of new NISA scheme
- ✓ Income before income taxes at highest level since FY2015/16 1Q as revenues grew QoQ and we kept costs down

– Investment Management

- ✓ Asset management business remains strong; Net inflows lifted AuM to record high of Y89trn, while stable business revenue was at highest level since division established in April 2021 when comparisons possible

– Wholesale

- ✓ Global Markets reported stronger revenues QoQ across all regions, while Investment Banking booked highest quarterly revenues since FY2016/17 when comparisons possible
- ✓ Higher variable costs in line with performance, a loss provision arising from settlement failures with a broker counterparty (approx. Y14bn), and year-end factors resulted in higher expenses QoQ

Net revenue by business line

Key points

Full Year

- Net Revenue: Y866.1bn (+12% YoY); Income before income taxes: Y53.9bn (+84% YoY)
 - Global Markets net revenue grew 8% YoY as Spread Products and Equity Products improved
 - Investment Banking net revenue increased 37% YoY as revenues grew across all main products, notably in Japan-related ECM and Advisory

Fourth quarter

- Net revenue: Y254.2bn (+17% QoQ; +42% YoY)
 - Global Markets net revenue increased QoQ in all regions driven by higher revenues in Rates and Securitized Products in the Americas and EMEA and in Equity Products in Japan and AEJ
 - Investment Banking net revenue grew further from strong prior quarter
- Income before income taxes: Y20.6bn (-10% QoQ)
 - Expenses increased due to higher variable costs in line with performance, a loss provision arising from settlement failures with a broker counterparty (approx. Y14bn), and year-end factors

Net revenue by region

1. As the recoverable amount for part of the claim related to the loss arising from transactions with a US client can now be reasonably estimated, gains of Y11.1bn (Y9.1bn trading revenue, Y1.9bn loan-loss provision reversal) were booked in FY2022/23 3Q.

2. Wholesale net revenue (annualized) divided by modified risk-weighted assets (daily average for the accounting period) used by Wholesale. Modified risk-weighted assets (daily average for the accounting period) is a non-GAAP financial measure and is the total of (i) risk-weighted assets (as calculated and presented under Basel III) and (ii) an adjustment equal to the regulatory adjustment to common equity tier 1 capital calculated and presented under Basel III divided by our internal minimum capital ratio target.

Wholesale: Global Markets

Net revenue

(billions of yen)

Key points

Full year

- Net revenue: Y707.1bn (+8% YoY)
 - Fixed Income net revenue increased 4% YoY as solid momentum in Spread Products and International Wealth Management more than offset a slowdown in Macro Products
 - Equities net revenue grew 13% YoY on higher revenues in Equity Products across all regions and stronger revenues in Japan Execution Services due to higher market volumes

Fourth quarter

- Net revenue: Y204.4bn (+19% QoQ; +37% YoY)
 - Global Markets net revenue increased across all regions
 - Fixed Income reported improved performance in EMEA and the Americas on uptick in client activity, while Equities booked stronger revenues QoQ driven by Japan and AEJ

Fixed Income

- Net revenue: Y122.6bn (+18% QoQ; +40% YoY)
 - Macro Products: EMEA and Americas Rates business booked stronger revenues as Agency Mortgages performance improved and SSA bonds contributed; AEJ FX/EM and Japan Rates slowed on back of a dip in client activity
 - Spread Products: Securitized Products revenues grew for fifth straight quarter; In Credit, Japan revenues declined as foreign bond investment slowed due to sharp yen depreciation, and AEJ revenues declined as a result of muted China market

Equities

- Net revenue: Y81.9bn (+20% QoQ; +32% YoY)
 - Equity Products: Japan revenues up strongly on unwinding of shareholdings and contribution from CB primary transactions; Revenues were up in EMEA and AEJ
 - Execution Services: Japan revenues remained elevated around similar level to last quarter which included a large offering; International revenues increased

1. International Wealth Management, businesses run together with Investment Banking, and other revenue not attributed to a particular desk. 2. Rates, FX/EM. 3. Credit, Securitized Products.

- This document contains statements that may constitute, and from time to time our management may make “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Any such statements must be read in the context of the offering materials pursuant to which any securities may be offered or sold in the United States. These forward-looking statements are not historical facts but instead represent only our belief regarding future events, many of which, by their nature, are inherently uncertain and outside our control. Actual results and financial condition may differ, possibly materially, from what is indicated in those forward-looking statements. You should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statement and should consider all of the following uncertainties and risk factors, as well as those more fully discussed under Nomura’s most recent Annual Report on Form 20-F and other reports filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) that are available on Nomura’s website (<https://www.nomura.com>) and on the SEC’s website (<https://www.sec.gov>); Important risk factors that could cause actual results to differ from those in specific forward-looking statements include, without limitation, economic and market conditions, political events and investor sentiments, liquidity of secondary markets, level and volatility of interest rates, currency exchange rates, security valuations, competitive conditions and size, and the number and timing of transactions.
- Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and Nomura undertakes no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect the impact of circumstances or events that arise after the date the forward-looking statement was made.
- The consolidated financial information in this document is unaudited.
