(1) Due to changes in accounting policy which Nomura adopted on April 1, 2018, certain reclassifications of amounts previously reported amounts have been made to conform to the current year presentation. See (7) Changes in Accounting Policies for further details.

(2) In accordance with Accounting Standards Update 2016-18 “Restricted Cash” which Nomura adopted on April 1, 2018, certain reclassification of amounts previously reported as cash, cash equivalents, restricted cash and restricted cash equivalents for the year ended March 31, 2018 have been made to conform to the current year presentation.

(6) Note with respect to the Assumption as a Going Concern

Not applicable.

(7) Changes in Accounting Policies

Revenue recognition

On April 1, 2018, Nomura adopted Accounting Standards Update 2014-09 “Revenue from Contracts with Customers” and replaced existing revenue recognition guidance with a new prescriptive model. As a result of this adoption based on the modified retrospective application, the beginning balance of Retained earnings has been adjusted.

Changes of offsetting of derivatives

Nomura collects and remits cash margin between its clients and central clearing houses in its execution and clearing services of exchange-traded derivative transactions. Cash margin collected from clients and remitted to central clearing houses was reflected on Nomura’s consolidated balance sheets. However, with effect from April 1, 2018, revisiting nature of the transactions, Nomura has revised its accounting policy for when such balances are recognized on Nomura’s consolidated group balance sheet and as a result, certain cash margin amounts held on behalf of clients as well as an equivalent amount reflecting the obligation to return such amounts to clients are no longer recognized on the balance sheet if certain criteria are met. Nomura has restated previously reported amounts of Receivables from other than customers decreased by 237.0 billion yen and Payables to other than customers decreased by 237.0 billion yen, respectively, to conform to the current presentation.

Daily variation margin for certain derivative transactions traded in Japan was reflected on Nomura’s consolidated balance sheets. However, from April 1, 2018, Nomura changed its accounting policy as a result of amendment of the rules of a specific central clearing house and daily variation margin is now off-balanced. Nomura has restated previously report amounts of Trading assets decreased by 4.9 billion yen, Receivables from other than customers decreased by 5.5 billion yen and Trading liabilities decreased by 10.4 billion yen respectively to conform to the current presentation.

Restricted Cash

On April 1, 2018, Nomura adopted Accounting Standards Update 2016-18 “Restricted Cash” As a result, restricted cash and restricted cash equivalents are now presented together with cash and cash equivalents in the consolidated statements of cash flows. Certain previously reported amounts in the statements of cash flows are reclassified in conformity with this change.
