PDCA cycle to enhance effectiveness of Board

PDCA cycle to ensure effectiveness of Board of Directors

- Each Director evaluates own execution of duties and effectiveness of the entire Board
- Board analyzes and evaluates effectiveness of the entire Board based on evaluations of each Director
- Discuss issues that can be addressed on executive side and propose to Board
- Discuss results of evaluation including proposal to address issues

Examples of how we have addressed issues

- Enhance provision of information
  - Report status of dialogue with stakeholders
    - Provide reports on dialogue with investors, analysts and other stakeholders to the Board of Directors on an ongoing basis
  - Participation in business execution meetings
    - Discuss medium to long-term strategy and Nomura’s vision for 2020 and beyond

- Promote discussion by Outside Directors
  - Regular meetings of Outside Directors
    - Outside Director meetings held since 2015 (4 meetings in 2017)
    - Discuss group strategy and management of Board of Directors
Objectives and roles of Audit Committee

Role of Audit Committee (Corporate Governance Guidelines):

- Audit the legality, validity and efficiency of execution of duties by Directors and Executive Officers, utilizing accounting auditors, auditing firms and organizations within the company.
- Establish evaluation criteria for accounting auditors.
- Determine proposals concerning election and dismissal of accounting auditors.

Composition of Audit Committee (Corporate Governance Guidelines):

- Majority of members are Outside Directors.
- Directors concurrently serving as Executive Officers do not serve as Audit Committee members.
- To ensure independence and transparency, the Chairman of the Audit Committee is, in principle, an Outside Director.

Basic Policy of Nomura Holdings Audit Committee:

- Establish good corporate governance to ensure the sustainable growth of the Nomura Group and earn society's trust.
- Actively participate in the development and operation of the internal controls system, and monitor and verify its effectiveness.
- Enhance effectiveness and efficiency of audits through collaboration with accounting auditors and Internal Audit.
- Monitor the effectiveness of group strategy by implementing PDCA for group strategy at all levels.
Initiatives as Chairman of the Audit Committee

- Visited offices in Japan and overseas
  - Objective
    - Understand business conditions on the ground
    - Check extent to which management vision and strategy have penetrated business operations
  - Places visited
    - Overseas offices: London, New York, Hong Kong, Singapore, Powai, Thailand, China
    - Domestic headquarters and branches: Kyoto, Osaka, Niigata

- Held global Audit Committee meetings
  - From sharing information to global collaboration

- Attended Audit Committee meetings in each region

- Shared understanding of challenges and exchanged information
- Requested global collaboration of auditing firms
- Strengthened evaluation procedures for accounting auditors

Challenges to enhancing the Audit Committee

Common understanding of Audit Committee activities
- Create an Audit Committee statement to foster common understanding of the committee’s activities

Enhance yearly evaluation of accounting auditor
- Reflect evaluation of Chairman of Audit Committee in each region in the yearly accounting auditor evaluation done by Nomura Holdings’ Chairman of the Audit Committee
- Discuss performance of accounting auditor with Chairman of Audit Committee in each region

Strengthen collaboration with Audit Committees in each region
- Share annual audit plan
- Meeting with Chairman of Audit Committee in each region to do a follow-up on global Audit Committee meetings
- Participation by Nomura Holdings’ Chairman of Audit Committee and each region’s Chairman of Audit Committee in other region’s committee meetings

Improve risk-based auditing and complex theme-based auditing
- Focus on auditing of subsidiaries’ businesses
- Management of outsourced businesses and outsourcing companies
