

Newport® receives top honors from buy-side investors in The TRADE's 2015 EMS Survey

Instinet lands on "Vendor Roll of Honor" for third consecutive year

New York – November 3, 2015 – For the third consecutive year, Instinet Incorporated today announced it has been included in The TRADE's "Vendor Roll of Honor" for its annual 2015 Global Execution Management System (EMS) Survey.

Instinet's premier trading and award winning global, multi-asset platform, Newport 3, was named as a top performer in seven of 13 functional categories:

- Reliability and Availability
- Client Service Personnel
- Ease of Use
- Timeliness of Updating with Broker Enhancements
- Breadth of Direct Connections to Venues
- Product Development - Planning and Delivery
- Overall Cost of Operation

In the Overall Performance category, Instinet was also top ranked by hedge fund clients.

"The results of this latest survey are a testament to Instinet's continuing investment in Newport 3, in terms of our technology and our people. Instinet continues to constantly innovate, and Newport's ability to find solutions in an ever-changing market is essential, especially as our clients navigate the current trading landscape. We understand that workflow efficiency and robust performance are vital to the success of today's dealing desk," said Scott Bradley, Head of EMS and Sales Analytics for Instinet Europe Limited in London.

This year's survey results were determined by more than 250 buy-side evaluations, covering more than 20 technology providers.
