

Nomura Hires Cross Asset Strategist Charlie McElligott

– With this hire the firm expands its strategy and content offering to clients –

New York, January 30, 2018— Nomura announced today that Charlie McElligott has joined as a Managing Director and cross asset strategist for the firm’s Global Markets business.

Mr. McElligott is based in New York and joins Nomura from RBC Capital Markets where he was most recently a Managing Director and Head of US Cross-Asset Macro Strategy.

In this new role, Mr. McElligott will concentrate on the macro markets with a focus on positioning and sentiment alongside quantitative factor analysis. His goal is to provide actionable insights through daily content and high touch coverage, including risk-assessment, survey work and trade ideas.

“Charlie has earned a great reputation as a sharp macro thinker over the last 15 years and we look forward to his contribution to the Nomura client franchise,” said Samir Patel, Head of Equity Products Sales and Structuring for Nomura in the Americas.

_____ ends _____

For further information please contact:

Name	Company	Telephone
Jennifer Will	Nomura Holding America Inc.	+1 212 667 9971

Nomura

Nomura is an Asia-headquartered financial services group with an integrated global network spanning over 30 countries. By connecting markets East & West, Nomura services the needs of individuals, institutions, corporates and governments through its four business divisions: Retail, Asset Management, Wholesale (Global Markets and Investment Banking), and Merchant Banking. Founded in 1925, the firm is built on a tradition of disciplined entrepreneurship, serving clients with creative solutions and considered thought leadership. For further information about Nomura, visit www.nomura.com/