

Nomura Capital Partners Forms Alliance with Nihon Suido Consultants

Tokyo, June 5, 2020—Nomura Capital Partners Co., Ltd. (“NCAP”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Nomura Holdings, Inc., today announced that it has entered into a capital alliance with Nihon Suido Consultants Co., Ltd. (“Nihon Suido”) through Nomura Capital A1 Investment Limited Partnership, a fund managed by NCAP. The ratio and amount of the investment are undisclosed.

Nihon Suido is a leading engineering consultant in the water industry. Since its founding in 1959, Nihon Suido has been a pioneer in the water consultancy business, evolving and expanding its services over the years to meet changing demands. The company supports water, wastewater, sanitation, river engineering and other projects in Japan and overseas, from concept, planning and design to construction supervision and operations and management.

Many entities in Japan have pointed to a shortage of financial resources and people to take on the responsibility to properly maintain and upgrade Japan’s mature infrastructure, including water and wastewater systems. Nihon Suido aims to use its expertise and broad network to provide services that cater to specific regional needs in partnership with governments and the private sector.

Making use of Nomura’s robust global network, NCAP will support Nihon Suido as it seeks to strengthen its management framework and provide personnel and information as part of its mission to protect regional water infrastructure.

NCAP is committed to providing equity and other solutions to meet the diversified and sophisticated needs of its clients. NCAP will work together with clients to help resolve the various challenges they face and grow their businesses.
