

Nomura appoints Tina Rydberg as Head of Nordic Fixed Income Sales and Global Markets Sales, Denmark

London, October 1, 2012– Nomura, Asia's global investment bank, announces today that it has hired Tina Rydberg as Head of Nordic Fixed Income Sales and Global Market Sales, Denmark.

Based in London, she reports to Raffaele Ricci, Head of Fixed Income Sales, EMEA, and David Sahlin, Co-Head of Sales, Equities Investor and Corporate Solutions, EMEA.

Tina brings substantial industry experience to the position and is an important addition to Nomura's European business.

"We are dedicated to replicating the success of our equities business in the Nordic region into Fixed Income," said David Sahlin, Co-Head of Sales, Equities Investor and Corporate Solutions, EMEA. "With Tina's local market expertise and her excellent relationships with clients, we look forward to growing our competitive position in Fixed Income."

Since 2009, Nomura has broadened its footprint in the Nordic region. In 2010, Nomura established its first office in the Nordics in Sweden, followed in 2012 by the opening of an office in Helsinki.

"We have demonstrated our long term commitment to the Nordic region over the last few years and Tina's appointment is the next step in that journey," said Raffaele Ricci, Head of Fixed Income Sales, EMEA. "Fixed income has consistently performed well in EMEA and we are dedicated to increasing our market share and hiring quality people."

Prior to joining Nomura, Tina spent 13 years with BNP Paribas where she most recently held the position of Head of Nordic Sales, Fixed Income. Tina previously worked as an academic at Nuffield College, University Of Oxford.
