

Nomura to Support Relief Efforts in the Philippines

Tokyo, November 13, 2013—Nomura Holdings, Inc. and Nomura Asia Holding N.V today announced that they will donate a total of US$100,000 to the relief and recovery efforts in the wake of Super Typhoon Haiyan that struck the Philippines on November 8.

Our office in the Philippines will work closely with the local authorities to determine the best way to allocate the funds. We extend our heartfelt condolences to the victims and their families and hope for a fast recovery from this disaster.
