

Nomura Announces Impairment Charges in Unconsolidated Financial Statements on Investments in Subsidiaries

Tokyo, April 30, 2014—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that it has recognized impairment charges on equity investments in its unconsolidated financial results for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2014, as shown below.

The impairment charges are mainly due to a substantial decrease in the actual equity value of a regional holding company for Asia.

Impairment Charges on Equity Investments in Subsidiaries in the Fourth Quarter of the Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2014

(millions of yen)

(A) Impairment charges on equity investments in subsidiaries from April 1, 2013, to March 31, 2014	79,309
(B) Impairment charges on equity investments in subsidiaries from April 1, 2013, to December 31, 2013	—

As the above impairment charges are eliminated at consolidation, there is no impact on Nomura's consolidated results.
