

Nomura to Support Relief Efforts in Nepal

Tokyo, May 1, 2015—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that it will start coordinating donations from its employees around the world in Japan, AEJ, EMEA and the Americas to support relief efforts following the recent devastating earthquake in Nepal. Nomura and its charitable foundations will match all qualifying employee donations.

Employee donations and any matched giving will be donated to various international relief organizations such as Japan Red Cross, Doctors Without Borders (Medecins Sans Frontieres), the World Food Programme, and the Disasters Emergency Committee.

Nomura extends its heartfelt condolences to the victims and their families and hopes for a fast recovery from this disaster.
