

Nomura Announces Result of Fundraising for Relief Efforts in Nepal

Tokyo, June 8, 2015—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that it will donate a total of 15 million yen (US$120,987)¹ to support relief efforts following the recent devastating earthquake in Nepal.

Nomura and its charitable foundations matched all qualifying employee donations and will contribute to various international relief organizations involved in providing support to Nepal, such as Japan Red Cross, Hong Kong Red Cross, Doctors Without Borders (Medecins Sans Frontieres), and Save the Children.

Nomura extends its heartfelt condolences to the victims and their families and hopes for a fast recovery from this disaster.

ends

Nomura

Nomura is an Asia-based financial services group with an integrated global network spanning over 30 countries. By connecting markets East & West, Nomura services the needs of individuals, institutions, corporates and governments through its three business divisions: Retail, Asset Management, and Wholesale (Global Markets and Investment Banking). Founded in 1925, the firm is built on a tradition of disciplined entrepreneurship, serving clients with creative solutions and considered thought leadership. For further information about Nomura, visit www.nomura.com.

¹ US dollar amount is included solely for the convenience of the reader and has been translated at the rate of 123.98 yen = 1 US dollar, the noon buying rate in New York for cable transfers in foreign currencies as certified for customs purposes by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York on May 29, 2015. This translation should not be construed to imply that the yen amounts actually represent, or have been or could be converted into, equivalent amounts in US dollars.