

Nomura Selected as Component of Dow Jones Sustainability Indices

Tokyo, October 1, 2018—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that it has been selected as a component of the DJSI World Index and DJSI Asia Pacific Index. The Dow Jones Sustainability Indices (“DJSI”) are the world’s first and leading global sustainability benchmarks.

This year a total of 317 companies (including 34 Japanese companies) were selected from among 2,521 of the world’s largest companies for the DJSI World Index. A total of 150 companies (including 75 Japanese companies) were selected from among 612 of Asia Pacific’s largest companies for the DJSI Asia Pacific Index.

Nomura has been selected as a component of the DJSI World Index for four consecutive years and has been selected as a component of the DJSI Asia Pacific Index for ten consecutive years since its launch in 2009.

In keeping with its commitment to grow with Asia as Asia’s global investment bank, Nomura continues to engage a wide range of stakeholders in constructive dialogue.

Nomura was highly rated for its ESG (environmental, social and governance) initiatives and continued efforts to disclose relevant information based on its philosophy of helping to enrich society through expertise in the capital markets.

Nomura has also been a component of the FTSE4Good Index for 12 consecutive years since 2006, as well as being selected as a component of the FTSE Blossom Japan Index. The indices, established by FTSE, are wholly owned by the London Stock Exchange Group.

In addition, Nomura has been selected for inclusion in the MSCI Japan Empowering Women Index, STOXX Global ESG Leaders Index, fully owned by the German stock exchange Deutsche Börse Group, and the Morningstar Socially Responsible Investment Index, Morningstar, Inc. as of January 2018.

These indices are designed to measure companies’ performance to determine whether they are meeting globally recognized corporate social responsibility standards, and to facilitate investment in those companies.

Nomura will continue to proactively disclose information on its ESG initiatives in order to further enhance its corporate value over the medium to long term. The firm will also strive to contribute to the creation of an affluent society and sustainable economic development.
