

Nomura Finalizes Donation for Typhoon Hagibis Relief Efforts

Tokyo, March 5, 2020—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that it has donated 5,814,320 yen to support relief efforts in Japan for Super Typhoon Hagibis, which struck Japan on October 12, 2019. As announced on October 16, 2019, Nomura has been coordinating donations from its employees and matched qualifying donations.

The donation was made through the Central Community Chest of Japan.

Nomura's strategic partner American Century Investments has also donated to the relief efforts.

Nomura extends its deepest condolences to the victims and their families and prays for a swift recovery from this disaster.
