

Nomura Appoints New Advisory Board Members

Tokyo, May 19, 2020—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that it has appointed two new Advisory Board members.

Nomura is pleased to welcome Mr. Chartsiri Sophonpanich, President of Bangkok Bank Public Company Limited, and Mr. Philip Hammond, former Member of Parliament and Chancellor of the Exchequer, as new members. They join current Advisory Board members Mr. Goh Chok Tong and Mr. Deepak Parekh, who have been on the board since April 2015.

Nomura first established its Advisory Board in 2001 to advise the firm's Executive Management Board, which is responsible for making decisions on business execution. The purpose of the board is to receive advice and suggestions on Nomura's business and overall management from external leaders with extensive expertise in business and management.

In 2015, Nomura appointed four preeminent Asian leaders as Advisory Board members, and has held seven meetings up until March 2019 in Tokyo, Singapore and other Asian cities.

As a global financial services group, Nomura will continue to apply the advice and global perspectives of the board to management.
