

Nomura Donates Additional $1 Million to Covid-19 Relief in India

Tokyo, August 4, 2021—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that it has donated $1 million in matched employee donations to support Covid-19 relief and recovery efforts in India.

This follows an initial donation of $2 million made to Habitat for Humanity and United Way Bengaluru, which was announced on May 4, 2021¹.

In addition to these two organizations, the additional funds have been donated to Yuva Unstoppable, Doctors Without Borders and British Asian Trust.

The funds will be used to provide immediate care, including oxygen support for critical patients, hygiene kits and packages of daily essentials.
