

Nomura Announces Results of Fundraising for Noto Peninsula Earthquake Relief Efforts

Tokyo, March 27, 2024—To support relief efforts in the wake of the earthquake that struck the Noto Peninsula in Japan, Nomura Holdings, Inc. coordinated donations from its employees globally and matched all qualifying donations.

Nomura today announced that it donated a total of 11,400,000 yen in matched employee donations through the Central Community Chest of Japan to support victims in the devastated areas. This follows an initial donation of 20 million yen announced on January 5, 2024¹.

Nomura extends its deepest condolences to the victims and their families and prays for a swift recovery from this disaster.
