

Nomura Selected as Component of Dow Jones Sustainability Indices

Tokyo, December 24, 2024—Nomura Holdings, Inc. today announced that it has been selected as a component of the DJSI World Index and DJSI Asia Pacific Index for the tenth and sixteenth consecutive years, respectively. The Dow Jones Sustainability Indices (DJSI)¹ are the world's first and leading global sustainability benchmarks.

This year the top 10 percent of companies were selected from among 2,500 of the world's largest companies for the DJSI World Index. Of the 600 largest companies in Asia Pacific, the top 20 percent of companies were selected for the DJSI Asia Pacific Index.

Nomura has also been a component of the FTSE4Good Index for 18 consecutive years since 2006, as well as being selected as a component of the FTSE Blossom Japan Index and FTSE Blossom Japan Sector Relative Index. The indices, established by FTSE, are wholly owned by the London Stock Exchange Group.

In addition, Nomura has been selected for inclusion in the MSCI World ESG Leaders Index, MSCI Nihonkabu ESG Select Leaders Index, MSCI Japan Empowering Women Index, Morningstar Japan ex-REIT Gender Diversity Tilt Index and the S&P/JPX Carbon Efficient Index.

These indices are designed to measure companies' performance against globally recognized sustainability standards, and to facilitate investment in those companies.

Nomura actively engages in sustainability related activities in line with its Purpose of "We aspire to create a better world by harnessing the power of financial markets". Nomura will continue to strengthen its efforts and enhance disclosures to further contribute to the realization of a more sustainable future and help resolve issues affecting society.
