

Nomura Launches 100th Anniversary Commemorative Website

Tokyo, April 1, 2025—Nomura Holdings, Inc. (Nomura) will celebrate its 100th Anniversary in December 2025.

Since its founding, Nomura has remained committed to taking on new challenges, embracing change and growing as a firm, while contributing to society and its stakeholders through its business activities.

As the company prepares to celebrate its milestone 100th anniversary, it reaffirms its commitment to building a better world and enriching people's lives by leveraging its strong business franchise and financial expertise.

Nomura will organize a broad range of initiatives to show its appreciation to clients and other stakeholders who have supported it over the years.

100th Anniversary Website

Nomura launched its 100th Anniversary Website today to showcase its history, including through videos, and provide information about commemorative events.

100th Anniversary logo

Nomura has created a new 100th Anniversary logo that embodies the firm's Group Purpose announced in April 2024: "We aspire to create a better world by harnessing the power of financial markets".

The Heartful Red (Nomura's corporate color) line running through the letter A rises to the right, symbolizing how the growth of financial markets helps create a better world. It also represents the firm's connection with its clients and the strong bonds its people share.

Key visual

Nomura has also created a key visual representing its 100-year history and its future based on its Founder's Principles and Group Purpose. The design illustrates Nomura's determination and commitment as a bridge to the future, connecting together into an upward spiral as the firm strives to create a better world.

In addition, Nomura's new head office<sup>1</sup> in Japan is scheduled to be completed in 2026. Under the concept of "The Global Heart of Nomura Diversity," the office will create an environment where
