

Nomura Wins Second Prize Award for Promotional Video in 2019 New York Festivals Competition

Tokyo, May 22, 2019— Nomura Securities Co. Ltd., a wholly owned subsidiary of Nomura Holdings, Inc., today announced that it won the Second Prize Award in the 2019 New York Festivals Awards competition for the firm's promotional video First Gift.

Founded in 1957, New York Festivals is an international organization that recognizes the world's best work in advertising, radio, television and film. This year's competition saw entries from 62 countries worldwide.

Nomura's video won the Second Prize Award in the Film Craft category.

Nomura released First Gift in December 2017. First gift is a story about the unbreakable, never-ending bond between parent and child that starts with the first gift children receive from their parents: their name. It highlights the thought and care that parents put into selecting this first gift and the importance of inheritance as the final gift parents give to their children. The video shows Nomura's commitment to helping parents convey their love and care through this final gift to their children.
