

2014 Grants update

Greenhouse Sports

Impacts 80 young people

- Greenhouse Sports is a London based charity that uses sport to engage young people living in the inner-city. Greenhouse Sports aims to develop social, thinking, emotional and physical skills for young people in London's communities through high quality, intensive sports programmes delivered by inspirational coaches.
- Greenhouse was awarded a grant of £68,000 over two years (£34,000 per year) to fund the delivery of their core 13-15 age group football programme for two teams, to intensively engage 80 young people in London.

East London Business Alliance (ELBA)

Impacts 250 young people

- ELBA exists to create possibilities and opportunities in East London by connecting business to local people, alongside public and community partners, to enable social, economic and infrastructure change. ELBA's mission is to create a landscape where businesses support and compliment the development goals of local disadvantaged communities
- ELBA was awarded a renewal grant £30,000 to fund the 'Beyond Boundary' project; a community regeneration project in the Boundary Estate in Bethnal Green, focusing on raising aspirations and employability of the young people in the area.

IntoUniversity

Impacts 1,200 young people

- IntoUniversity is an entrepreneurial education charity which aims to advance the education of children and young people in disadvantaged communities across the UK by running a national network of high quality, local education centres providing services to address educational underachievement and social exclusion.
- IntoUniversity was awarded a grant of £100,000 to fund two Graduate Education Worker salaries at the Haringey North Centre, impacting 1,200 students through the IntoUniversity Programme.

ThinkForward

Impacts 70 young people

- ThinkForward aims to help young people navigate the often difficult transition from school into work. By intervening early and providing long term personalised support from highly skilled coaches
- ThinkForward was awarded a grant of £100,000 to fund the placement of an experienced Coach in our partner Secondary School, Oaklands, to support under-performing students, aged 14-19 years, at risk of becoming NEET.

Place2Be

Impacts 2,800 young people

- Place2Be is the leading UK provider of school-based mental health support, unlocking children's potential in the classroom and beyond. It aims to enhance the wellbeing and prospects of children and their families by providing access to therapeutic and emotional support in schools, using a proven model backed up by research and training
- Place2Be was awarded a grant of £100,000 to support the delivery of counselling, referral, consultation, training and parental guidance services in six primary schools across Ealing and Southwark.

Tower Hamlets Education Business Partnership (THEBP)

Impacts 560 young people

- THEBP are an independent charity supporting the education, training and development of young people by forming mutually beneficial partnerships between businesses and schools.
- THEBP was awarded a renewal grant of £25,000 to support the 'Passport to Employability' programme in Tower Hamlets. The project offer Schools a high quality, innovative employability skills programme which will be backed up by a nationally recognised qualification.

Kids Company

Impacts 40 young people

- Kids Company provides a safe and secure environment for children and young people experiencing, or at risk of neglect, abuse and trauma. They provide assistance to over 14,000 vulnerable children and young people living in the most deprived areas of London
- Kids Company has been awarded a grant of £110,000 to fund keyworker provision at Kenbury Works, who support through 1:1 and therapy sessions, small group educational projects, and assessments.

The Brokerage Citylink

Impacts 800 young people

- The Brokerage offers a pathway of opportunities for talented young Londoners who are aiming towards a future career in business, finance, professional services or corporate law.
- The Brokerage has been awarded a renewal grant of £35,000 to fund the delivery of 32 'Introduction to Working life' workshops in primary schools in Southwark, reaching up to 800 students.

Oaklands Secondary School

Impacts 750 young people

- Oaklands is a small secondary school in Tower Hamlets with 750 students. Situated in one of the most deprived parts of the UK the school specializes in science and languages with a strong international focus, with regular visits from academic partners around the world.
- Oaklands Secondary School was awarded a renewal grant of £35,000 to support extra-curricular literacy and numeracy academic support focusing on KS3 students to improve their English & Maths GCSE and raise attainment levels and aspiration for all students.

School-Home Support

Impacts 80 young people

- School-Home Support (SHS) works on the simple ethos of getting every child in school and ready to learn, whatever it takes. Dedicated SHS practitioners offer a combination of specialist support, emotional and practical advice to vulnerable children and young people
- School-Home Support was awarded a renewal grant of £40,000 to fund the provision of two practitioners in two London primary schools, including our partner primary school, Southwark Park.

Futureversity

Impacts 208 young people

- Futureversity is an education charity providing free courses and activities for 11-25 year olds to help them develop the skills and self-belief to make the most of their lives. Their programmes have been proven to raise aspirations, reduce youth crime, break down racial tensions and get unemployed young people off benefits and into work.
- Futureversity has been awarded a grant of £29,000 to support 'Vacation Education', a non-formal learning programme, which would take place during school holidays to be delivered from May 2015 reaching 208 young people from disadvantaged backgrounds.

Chance to Shine

Impacts 70 young people

- Chance to Shine aims to give every young person the opportunity to play and learn through cricket. Its mission is to spread the power of cricket in schools and communities, inspiring 1 million more young people by 2020. The charity delivers two main programmes, a Schools Programme to provide cricketing opportunities in state schools and a Street Programme engaging young people through cricket in disadvantaged areas.
- Chance to Shine was awarded £27,000 to support the delivery of three 'Chance to Shine Street' projects across Tower Hamlets and Lambeth reaching over 70 young people per week.

Debate Mate

Impacts 136 young people

- Debate Mate's mission is to dramatically increase the life chances of disadvantaged young people through personal empowerment and attainment of the core skills required to achieve social mobility. Debate Mate teaches debating to develop communication, higher-order thinking and interpersonal skills, at the same time building confidence, self-esteem and self-belief.
- Debate Mate was awarded £22,000 to fund the core after-school debating club in eight inner city schools across London, reaching up to 136 students aged 9-15 years